The Lost Civilization of IKEA

Activity One – Quick Discussion

Using these linking words give your opinion on these questions :

- Are you interested in history ?
- What is the most interesting period of history in your opinion ?
- Do you read about history ?
- What would you consider to be a reliable source of information about history ?
- Do you think that the information we are given in history lessons is true ?
- Who re-writes history ?

Activity Two – To talk about history we need to be familiar with the different past tenses.Let's review them together.

Activity Three – watch the video presentation

http://revver.com/video/1155438/the-lost-civilization-of-ikea/

Activity Four – now watch it again and listen out for the answers to these qusetions.

1. How many continents were easy to see on a map ?
2. Do we know much about most of the continents ?
3. Which land do we know about ?
4. What's the first thing we notice about IKEA land ?
   What was the beast that the IKEA people were fighting called ?
5. What is the present year in the film ?
6. Name some of the things they show in the 'museum'.
7. What was supplied in the bedroom for when a man is tired ?
8. What do they claim about their presentation at the end ?
   Why can't we tell them they are wrong.

Activity Five – Using the different past tenses TALK ABOUT :

- How much did the average client spend in your store yesterday ?
- For how long have you been working at IKEA ?
- Where did you work before you worked here ?
- What were you doing when you found out you had got the job at IKEA ?
- What had you learned about IKEA working conditions before you got the job and who told you about it ?
- What made you want to work at IKEA ?
- What do you think should have been done differently in your store last year ?
- What have you done well this year so far ?