Come Fly With Me - Teachers sheet

Please could I see your passport.
Can I get you anything?
Do you have any rubbish?
Would you like anything from the trolley.
Ten minutes to landing.
Please don’t put your bags in the aisle.
Your life jacket is located under your seat.
Please remain in your seats while the seat belt light is on.
Please present your boarding card at the gate.
Please store your bags in the overhead lockers.

airfare noun	cost of a plane ticket aisle noun	the long empty space that you walk down aisle seat noun	the seat that is next to the aisle boarding pass noun	part of the ticket that you give to the crew as you step onto the plane bumpy adj	up and down movement of the aircraft cabin noun	interior of the aircraft call light noun	a button passengers can press to get a crew member's attention cockpit noun	the part of the plane where the captain and his co-pilots sit emergency exit noun	section of the plane that opens in the case of an accident e-ticket noun	airfare purchased on the internet excess baggage noun	heavier/more bags than you are allowed first-class noun/adj	more expensive seating, with better services gate noun	place where passengers go to wait to board a plane jet lag noun	tiredness due to travelling through different time zones land verb	returning to the ground after being in the air life vest, life jacket noun	a blow-up device that you put on in an emergency over water motion sickness noun	a bad feeling in the stomach that passengers get during a rough ride overbooked adj	more passengers than available seats overhead bin/ compartment noun	place above the seats for storing luggage oxygen mask noun	a device that goes over a person's face, provides air in case of cabin air pressure loss passport noun	document that proves a person's identification and nationality refreshments noun	drinks and snacks row noun	a number of seats beside each other runway noun	the strip of land that an airplane takes-off and lands on seatbelt noun	device that holds passengers in their seats steward (male), stewardess (female), flight attendant, air host noun	man or woman who provides service for passengers during a flight stopover noun	touching down at more than one airport during a flight take off noun/verb	when the plane leaves the ground taxi in, out verb	driving an airplane to the correct place for taking off touch down verb, noun	when the aircraft wheels land on the ground turbulence noun	rough flight window seat noun	seat next to the window where passengers can look out