BLUE HOTEL

EAE Learning objectives for this lesson

Adjectives - Opposites - Hotel Vocabulary - Simulating hotel situations.

Activity One - Listen to the song and answer the questions:

1. Where is the blue hotel?
2. Is life going well for him?
3. What adjective describes his feelings?
4. How does he spend his nights?

Activity Two: With your partner write a similar song following the framework below. This one is called Red Hotel and it's a happy song! Then sing it (or read it) to the rest of the group.

Red hotel……. (where is it?)
Red hotel…….(how is your life going?)
I ……..(how do you spend your time)
Red hotel
Red hotel

Red hotel every room is….. (describe the room)
The night is…. (describe the night)
Red hotel
Red hotel

Activity Three - Opposite adjectives

With a different partner fill in the gaps in the text with opposite adjectives to the ones used.

My wife and I set off to our holiday destination on a beautiful sunny day. The sky was clear and the air was warm. We felt very excited about our holiday. The flight was easy and pleasant and we arrived feeling refreshed and ready for the day ahead. As soon as we arrived in the hotel we were welcomed by a friendly and caring receptionist. She showed us personally to our beautiful, light, clean and modern hotel room. The bed was comfortable, the bathroom was large and very clean and the view was amazing. We had a rest, got changed and then went down to the spacious and attractive dining room for our first meal. The menu was varied and the food was very high quality. We really had a fabulous first meal and the rest of the holiday was wonderful. It's the best hotel I have every stayed in!

Activity Four - Team Game - in teams find the opposite adjectives - the first team to ring the bell gets a point if their answer is correct and the opposite team gets a bonus point if they are wrong.

Colourful decorations, Clean linen, Breathtaking views, Spacious accommodation, Fabulous service, Friendly staff, Fun atmosphere, Varied offer, Punctual transport, Safe environment.

Activity Five - Trip Advisor. With your partner write a good and a bad review of one of the following hotels: First read the description of the hotel. Use lot's of adjectives in your reviews!
