Day camp lesson - introductions - comparatives and superlatives

Icebreaker - You have a celebrity stuck on your head. You must ask questions to find out who you are!

Activity One - With the celebrities, you must discuss with your partner, what each celebrity is the best at (or what they are better than the other celebrities at)
Example: Obama was a better president than Trump
Michael Jackson was a better singer than Justin Bieber

Activity Two - Describe yourself
Can you describe yourself with 3 adjectives. Which celebrity are you most similar to?

Activity Three - Class survey - go around the room and find the answers to these questions about the people in the group

- Who is the smallest?
- Who is the tallest?
- Who is the youngest?
- Who is the oldest?
- Who is the best at French?
- Who is the best at English?
- Who is the best at sport?
- Who is the best at playing music?

Activity Four - Grammar point - http://www.grammar.cl/Intermediate/Comparatives_Superlatives.htm

Activity Five - Write a sentence for the comparative or superlative in each category

In partners, fill the gaps with the comparative 'better' or 'worse'
It's your opinion!
Let's see which ones are the most/least popular!

- Dogs are _____ than cats

Watch the funny clips - https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DriosWmiMQc
Which clip was the funniest and why?

Activity Six - Write a celebrity and put in the hat
We will have a duel between two people
You each will choose a celebrity.
You must say the name of your celebrity, and the first one to make a comparison between the two celebrities gets the point!

Activity Seven - Peyrou Olympics - Two team captains will choose their teams
We will do sprints, relay races, jumping

At the end we will see:

- Who is the fastest!
- Who can jump the furthest!
- Who can jump the highest!
- Which team was the best?

Activity Eight - Movie debate
In partners/teams pick a movie from the hat. You must debate why your movie is better than the other team's movie

Let's write some new movies, and play charades!

Activity Nine - Song - Destiny's child - survivor (fill in the gaps)
