

Activity 1 - Fruit vocabulary

Let's start by learning some vocabulary to describe fruit:
TASTE - fruity / juicy / sweet / sour / soft / bitter / tasty
TEXTURE - crunchy / hard / squishy / ripe / green / crispy

Activity 2 - Name that fruit team competition

Watch the fruit presentation and name the fruits you see in a race against the other team!
The team with the most correct answers wins a piece of fruit!
While you play, use one of the adjectives you learned in activity 1 to describe the fruits.

Activity 3 - Fruity Questions

Ask your partner the following questions and feed back to the group.

1. What is your favourite everyday fruit, and why?
2. What is your favourite exotic fruit?
3. If you were a fruit, what fruit would you be, and why?
4. How many portions or fruit and vegetable do you eat a day?
5. Think of two fruits that you can find in winter and two that you can find in the summer.
6. Name two desserts whose main ingredients are fruit.
7. Name two types of berries
8. What was the last piece of fruit you eat, and when was it?

Activity 4 - Fruit Quiz

Now let's see how fruit smart you are with this tricky fruit quiz! Can you get twelve out of twelve?

Activity 5 - Find someone who…

Go around the room and ask your classmates relevant questions with the aim of finding someone…

…whose favourite fruit is banana
…who is allergic to a fruit
…who never or very rarely eats fruit
…who drinks fruit juice for breakfast
…who has never eaten an avocado
…who loves olives
…who hates tomatoes
…who eats fruit in a sandwich

Activity 6 – Will and Going to

Will and going to mean almost the same thing and are interchangeable sometimes. However there are times when one is used more than the other and it sounds more natural.

Promises WILL
- If you are good this afternoon I'll make you your favourite fruit smoothie for breakfast tomorrow.

Offers to help / Voluntary action
- I can't decide which fruits dessert to make for my friends tonight.
- I'll help you find a recipe online.

Requests for help / Invitations
- Will you help me finish my dessert?
- Go on then, twist my arm!

Making a decision at moment of speaking
The phone rings
- Ill get it

State a plan or intention BE GOING TO
- What are you going to do tonight?
- I'm going to make a cherry pie with all the cherries we picked from our tree!

Predictions WILL OR BE GOING TO
- How do you think that new green grocers will do / is going to do?
- I think it will be / is going to be a hit, the fruit and vegetables look so fresh compared to the ones you find at the supermarket!

Activity 7 – Fruit parts competition

Use the dictionary answer the following questions as quick as you can! Can you beat the other teams?

Which fruit…

1. Do you peel?
2. Has skin?
3. Has pith?
4. Has pips?
5. Has stones?

6. Has seeds?
7. Has seeds on the outside?
8. Grows on a vine?
9. Has edible skin?
10. Is often mistaken for a vegetable?

Activity 8 – Fruit delicacies

In groups write a recipe made with at least two fruits. We will vote on the two best recipes and then make them in groups!

Now, let's go to the market and buy the ingredients we need to make our delicious fruit delicacies.

Activity 9 - Ready, steady, cook

In teams, make your fruity recipe and don't forget to concentrate on presenting it beautifully, making it delicious, and of course, speaking the maximum amount of English. At the end, we will vote for the best dish but before we start, make a prediction using the future about who you think will win!

Activity 10 - Fruit Fusion

You work for a food manufacturer and your boss asks you to come up with a new fruit fusion for the market. With your partner decide on a fusion (for example kiberry – kiwi and strawberry) and create a presentation, which you will show to your board of directors.

Consider the following points:

What is the name of your fruit fusion?
What gave you the idea to merge these two fruits?
Why should these two fruits be merged – what are the advantages?
What will make your fruit fusion better than other fruits?
What vitamins are found in these two fruits?
What will your target market be?
How are you planning to advertise the fruits?

Include the following expressions in your presentation:

Our fruit fusion will be called…
Will you please consider this fruit to be sold in your shop because…
It will be the best fruit on the market because…
You will find it (name to adjectives to describe the fruit)…
It is going to be a hit / a success / popular with (which type of people) because…

