Hey how ya doin'

EAE Learning objectives for this lesson

Learn expressions for introducing yourself. Practice introducing yourself and let your teacher get to know you.

Activity One - Ask and answer with a teacher or partner.

1. Why are you taking English lessons?
2. How do you feel about speaking English?
3. How long have you been learning English?
4. What are your main objectives?
5. What are your main problems with English?

Activity Two - How are you doing?

When we meet new people there are a lot of different ways we can say hello and ask how they are. Here are some examples. Practice reading them.

- Hello, how are you?
- Hi, nice to meet you
- Please to meet you
- It's nice to meet you, how are you?
- How are you doing?
- How's it going?
- Hello, how's it going?
- Hello it's a pleasure to meet you.
- Hello it's very nice to meet you.
- How are things?
- What's new?
- How is everything going?

Activity Three - Dialogue.

Read the dialogue with your teacher and then continue it…

Person 1 Hello, how are you?

Person 2 I'm fine thanks. What have you been doing since we last met?

Person 1 I've been very busy with a project at work. What about you?

Person 2 I've been busy too. I have also been on holiday.

Person 1 Oh that's nice where did you go on holiday?

Person 2 To Montpellier…..

……

Activity Four - When you meet people at work…

When you meet people at work you may have to show them around or ask them how you can help them. Here are some useful expressions:

- Hello, how can I help you?
- Hello, do you need any help?
- Hello, let me take you to John's office.
- Hello, do you have any questions I can help you with?

Now imagine that you are sitting at your desk and a person comes in and asks for your help. They want to know what your company/ school does and who works there.

Here's how the conversation starts….

- Hello, how can I help you?
- Hello, I was wondering if you could tell me more about your company/school and tell me who works in this building?
- Yes of course, let me explain…

Continue the conversation…….
(Prepare this in the bloc notes in myeasyaccessenglish).

Activity Five: Listen to the song.
Being exposed to language in all its forms will help you to learn more and more new words. Just relax, let the sounds wash over you and see what sinks in!

Listen to the song and write down any words you hear…. (In the bloc notes).

De La Soul - Ring Ring Ring (Ha Ha Hey) [Official Music Video]

Activity Six - Introducing yourself.

When you introduce yourself at work you can follow this framework;

My name is _____ I work in _____

I have worked here for _____ years

I live in _____ , and I have lived there for ____ years.

I am originally from _____

Currently, I am in charge of (responsibilities) _____

Practice introducing yourself.

Activity Seven - All about you! Answer the questions to help your teacher to get to know you.

1 What do you like doing at the weekends?

2 What is your favorite hobby or pastime?

3 What activities or subjects are you most passionate about?

4 Do you have a family?

5 Do you have any pets?

Activity Eight - We need to catch up!!! Role Plays.

1/ Imagine that I am a friend you are picking up from the airport. We have not seen each other in years!
What news do you have for me? What have you been doing for the past couple of years?

2/ Imagine I am a business associate you are collecting from the airport. It is the first time we are meeting each other!
Present yourself, what you do, and practice asking questions to get to know each other better. Your teacher will help!
